but so far that representation has not been attended to or considered.

Having heard learned counsel and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the main grievance of the petitioner is that he has been transferred three four times, in the circumstances, the petitioner is allowed to make a detailed representation to the Revenue Secretary, Government of Chhattisgarh within a period of ten days and the Revenue Secretary after receipt of the representation from the petitioner will pass a well reasoned order within a period of thirty days and till the representation is decided by the Revenue Secretary if the petitioner has not been relieved, he may be allowed to continue on the post.

With the aforesaid direction, the petition stands disposed of. Consequently, M.W.P.No.2508/03 and I.A.No.8282/03 also stand disposed of.
